

A.R.T. Newsletter

NEXT ONE UP

Association of Revolutionary Turners.

<http://www.revolutionary-turners.com>

4/28/14

UP, UP AND AWAY

UP, UP and ON the WAY

The collaborative project is off to a flying start.

With lots of offerings for the collaborative project at the April meeting and the balloon slices, sections, rings on display. The perfect project for a bunch of basket cases and air heads. (Balloonist Speak).

Reminder,

It's tonight

Your club needs YOU

The next ART collaborative project meeting will be Monday, April 28th.

It's not too late to turn in a turning in return for your name to be included with the project.

Dinner around 6:30 p.m., meeting 7 p.m. okay to arrive anytime after 6 p.m.

The meeting will be held at the home of Dennis & Catherine Francis, 1 Lothrop Circle in Lexington.

RSVP

MAX dimensions H=3". Diameter 1"ish. Piece should be finished. Deadline I believe is the next meeting. May 15th.

cat@francisnet.net

Thanks to Ralph Rumery and Art O'Connor for the last two meeting presentations. We need demonstrators for the upcoming meetings.

March 2014 Show'n Tell

On behalf of Jerry Sambrook of Western Mass Woodturners

The Western Mass Woodturners have extended an invitation to attend a Binh Pho demo this week.

The Binh Pho demo is: Thursday, May 1st. Starts at 6:30. Doors open at 6:15, due to people not waiting for demonstrator to set up before interrupting.

Address is: 31 Lowell St, West Springfield, Ma. There is a $10 Cover

This is almost direct across the street from the gate entrance to the Big E.

Please join Jerry Sambrook, Steve Reznek, Michael S Souter, Donna Banfield, Lynda Zibbideo, Frank White, as they all turn and/or embellish turnings with Binh. The demonstrations start at 10:00 and run until 3:00 — via Fuller Craft Museum, 455 Oak St, Brockton, MA 02301 (508) 588-6000

All-Day Wood Turning Demo and 3:00 pm talk

with artist Binh Pho

Sunday, May 4, 2014, 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Bring the family for a wonderful day of wood turning demos by Binh Pho and fellow wood turners. At 3:00 pm artist Binh Pho gives a talk about his segment of The Stories We Tell exhibition entitled Shadow of the Turning.

Shadow of the Turning is Binh Pho's first foray into the realm of fiction. The exhibition and book are an exploration of art, myth and philosophy, drawing upon diverse genres and media to bring the viewer into a fascinating literary adventure. Come learn more about his story and his process.

Demo is free with admission.

Binh Pho Talk,

Shadow of the Turning: Members $7, Nonmembers $15

Call and reserve your spot today!

Please bring your own chair, as we do not have any yet.

Folks wanting to inquire about the Bin Pho Demo at Western Mass Woodturners can e-mail Jerry Sambrook @ jsambrook@comcast.net Homepage: <http://misc9999.wix.com/western-mass-woodturners#!>

Club Info: <http://misc9999.wix.com/western-mass-woodturners#!club-info>

